Our Products
We have a variety of products that are unique to this gift shop and many are limited in quantity. There are handmade crafts typical of the 19th century. You can buy a keepsake card to send to your friend with Victorian “slang” on the inside. We have a number of books about Springfield and the surrounding area, as well as books about customs from the 19th century.

If you have gifts to buy for a child (or for someone young at heart), you may purchase historic toys and games for them. Or give them a more hands-on gift by getting one of our historic Make Kits, available in a variety of subjects.

Purchasing
Our gift shop is open during tours and events and by request. If you can’t visit us, but are interested in making a purchase, that is no problem! You may call us to order items over the phone and we can ship most items to you with a shipping and handling fee. We take all forms of payment, but prefer credit card for phone orders. The only items available for purchase online are the Make Kits on www.edwardsplace.org/gift-shop.

The music on this album represents a selection of songs that Lincoln loved.
